

This map shows the geographic concentration of states with the highest and least number of returned orders.

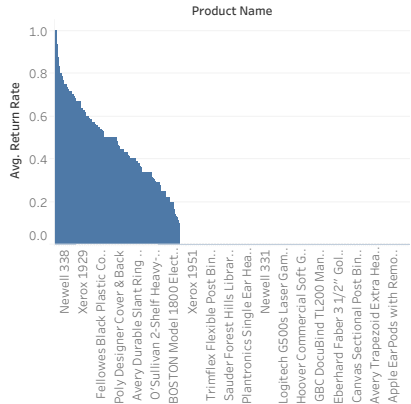

Comp chart for returns by state

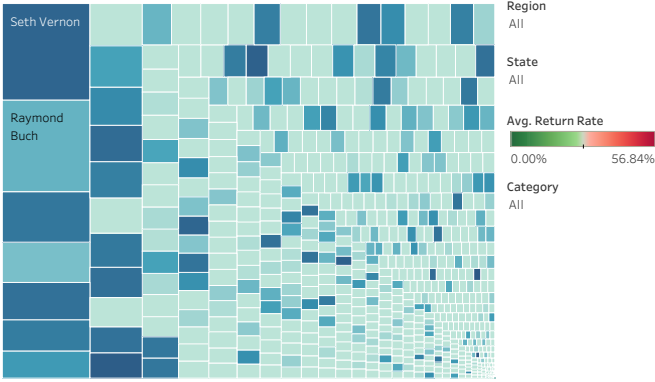

Finding out if any of the customers with high returns make less purchases, for possible fraud indicator.

Returns by product

Composite chart to show highest profit and returns from customers.

The number of sales does slightly correlate positively with the number of returns.

